

Fe Trading Group, the fastest growing scrap metal/commodity trading company in the US is looking for a Logistics professional with extensive experience in moving, negotiating rates, managing and developing relationships with railroads in US and Canada. Experience in barges and trucking an added plus.

Will consider remote office location for the right candidate. 4 year college degree preferred. Six plus years experience needed. Opportunity to join a dynamic group with emphasis on a culture that promotes collaboration and success. Candidate should possess the desire to join the efforts to make recycling a productive and meaningful endeavor. If you are interested and feel you are a good match for this position please send your resume to Lynn at LBaldwin@fetradinggroup.com.

Salary is commensurate with experience.

Full benefits package.

E/O/E